The International Cosmetic Ingredient Dictionary and Handbook (Dictionary) contains information about ingredient labeling requirements in the United States, the European Union, Japan and other countries. This information is based on publicly available information. While every effort was made to ensure its accuracy and timeliness, compliance with the laws and regulations of the United States, the European Union, Japan, or other country is solely the responsibility of the user of the Dictionary. CTFA cannot be held responsible for any specific or general use of the information in the Dictionary and disclaims any liability arising from reliance thereon.

The INCI Names presented in the International Cosmetic Ingredient Dictionary and Handbook are the result of substantial efforts by CTFA Staff and a committee of experts from the industry and the U.S., Japan, and the EU governments. INCI Names are frequently unique names developed and assigned on the basis of rules developed by CTFA. Additionally, the material as presented in this format is unique and found nowhere else. The development of rules, the assignment of INCI names, and the compilation and arrangement of the information for convenient reference represents an extensive amount of staff resources, judgment, effort, and time, and contributes to the originality of the text. While CTFA allows the use of INCI names for product labeling, regulatory purposes, and research or scholarship, compilation of INCI names for commercial purposes is expressly forbidden without prior written permission. The International Cosmetic Ingredient Dictionary and Handbook is fully copyrighted and may not be copied by any means without the written permission of CTFA.

Concerning U.S. Patent and Trademark Rights: The inclusion in the International Cosmetic Ingredient Dictionary and Handbook of a monograph of any cosmetic ingredient, in respect to which patent or trademark rights may exist, shall not be deemed, and is not intended as, a grant of, or authority to exercise, any right or privilege protected by such patent or trademark. All such rights and privileges are vested in the patent or trademark owner, and no other person may exercise the same without express permission, authority, or license secured from such patent or trademark owner. The absence of symbols "TM", "®", or others, as appropriate, with company trade names is strictly for publication convenience, and does not suggest lack of interest by the persons owning these names.
